IV. Committee Reports

Loan Committee

i. Charm City Concierge received the first loan funded by the Video Lottery Terminal (VLT) Funds for software and equipment purchases.

Business Retention and Expansion Committee

i. The committee discussed Baltimore’s small business ecosystem. The committee identified ways that BDC and SBRC can help small businesses, including coordinating services and upgrading technology. It was acknowledged that the new President’s focus includes small businesses development in all neighborhoods.

Project and Oversight Committee

ii. Two projects were discussed 1100 Key Highway PILOT request and Liberty-Clay-Marion RFP responses. Developer of 1100 Key Highway requested a 20 year PILOT for new mixed use residential and retail construction. The committee determined that the return on investment does not differ between the new city-wide high market rate tax credit, which is 10 years. The high market tax credit is a buy-right credit, and is consistent with City policy. Staff will inform developer of this option.

iii. The committee received bids for all six sites and is prepared to present on three of the sites. Sites AC (offered together) D and F (101, 103 W. Lexington St.; and 124 Liberty St.)

iv. The committee recommended that sites A and C (213, 215 Park Ave.; 105-107 Clay St.; and 208, 210-216 N. Liberty St.) be sold to the Housing Trust of America. The proposed development includes a 73 unit work force housing development with 53 parking spaces. The project, known as Lexington Gateway will use low income housing tax credits to raise $1.5 Million towards purchase price and construction cost. Devan made the motion to accept offer, Graziano seconded it, unanimously approved to accept the developer’s offer.
v. The committee recommended to sell site D (address) to Okoro Development. The project, Lexington Liberty Park Gateway, will include 27 units and ground floor retail. Devan made the motion to sell site D to the Okoro Development, Tarbert seconded it, unanimously approved by board.

vi. The committee recommended that we sell site F (119 Park Avenue) to Carmel Realty Associates who own the adjacent building. The adjacent building is being transformed into a residential/retail mix use building (The Residence at Kresge). Site F will allow for elevator access for upper floors of the development. The project includes 21 units over three floors. Devan motioned that site F be sold to Carmel Realty Associates, Chisera seconded it, unanimously approved by the board.

V. New Business

Arnold Williams made a motion for adjournment at 8:33 a.m.
